

1. Create a css file named with your roll no. like 0901.css. Link this file to all html pages of the HTML exam site. Write css rules for the below task in this css file.
2. Create the same layout of the HTML exam using div and css.
3. Center align the main content part of the page and set the body background color and main content background color to two different color.
4. Set default font family and font size for all the page element.
5. Set the font size of the footer copyright text to two size smaller than the default font size.
6. Add css to the menu links so that they appear different in different states. Also remove the underline of the menu texts.
7. Remove the border attribute from all the tables (if used) and add it using css. Also add css rules to make the double border to appear as a single border.
8. Use an image as marker for all the list items.
9. Make the text of "Home", "Line Breaks" and "tags" page content to be appeared as "justified".